To aid him in his Government,
Our Premier, wise and able,
Has gathered five well chosen men
Around his Council table.

To FRASER, all our Public Works
For years have been committed;
And though the Brawling Brood dissent,
He's won success decided.

Crown Lands are PARDEE'S special charge,
And have been many years,
His splendid character and work
Discounts all aimless sneers.

As Secretary, HARDY still Performing his duties well;
Wherein they could be better done
His critics fail to tell.

Our School and College interests
Are guarded well by ROSS;
An earnest, conscientious man,
Who scorns the shallowers' gross.

This honored name is also borne
By him who guards our cash;
No Tongue yet has dared to say
His management is rash.

HON. OLIVER MOWAT'S OPINION OF THE "NO-POPERY" CRU.

I have endeavored to carry into public life what I understand to be the essential principles of sound Protestantism. * * * I am bound to give, and, let me add, I do habitually give, respectful attention and all needed consideration to every suggestion or request respectfully made from any respectable quarter. Conservative or Liberal, poor or rich, unlearned or learned, Roman Catholic or Protestant.

* With respect to Roman Catholics, I have endeavored to show to our mixed community, that an earnest, fair-minded Protestant Premier may be true to his Protestantism, and yet be entitled to the reasonable confidence of thinking Roman Catholics. Under the present Government Protestantism is not in danger, whatever it might be if this Government were succeeded by a Government satisfactory to Sir John Macdonald and his party, who for thirty years or more have been leaning on Catholic support, and now in Ontario adopt the role of insulting Roman Catholics, and endeavoring to excite against them the Protestant feeling of the country. Let me former allow himself to be deceived.

HON. OLIVER MOWAT'S OPINION OF SCRIPTURE READINGS.

REV. DR. DEWART, re the "Scripture Readings":—

"I do not hesitate to say that, if the other grounds on which it is alleged that Protestantism is in danger in this Province are as weak, as flimsy, and as futile as what has been urged about the
'Scripture Readings' in the Public Schools, they are not likely to secure the confidence of candid and intelligent people."

REV. PRINCIPAL CAVEN, re "Scriptural Selections":—

"This attack on the Minister of Education in regard to the 'Scripture Readings' is such

REV. WM. COCHRANE, D.D., re the
"Biblical Selections":—

"I still further regret that the Minister of Education has been so bitterly attacked, for what was recognized by the Ontario Government, on the united request of the Protestant Churches of Ontario, as the best solution of a vexed question, and needful for the training of our children in religious truth."
